

RANDOLPH

The death of William N. Bailey occurred on Sunday, the result of a shock of apoplexy with which he was stricken about three months ago, and from which he had never rallied so as to be able to talk. Mr. Bailey was taken to the sanatorium several weeks ago for care, but this did not seem to improve his condition and he gradually faded. Mr. Bailey was 71 years and nine months old, and for a long time had lived in town. Deceased is survived by his adopted daughter, Miss Ida Bailey, who has been faithful in her ministrations to him. The funeral services were held from the home on Central street Tuesday forenoon, and the remains were taken to Woodstock for burial in the family lot.

A serious automobile accident occurred on the Brainerd road Monday evening when Alva Campbell was out with his car accompanied by Wayne Cladin, Raymond Campbell and Ernest Austin. Mr. Campbell, while driving very rapidly, lost control of his car and ran into a telephone pole, cutting it off twice and throwing some of the occupants out, damaging the car very badly. Mr. Campbell, who was at the wheel, did not receive serious injury and escaped with a little hurt to one foot. Wayne Cladin injured his arm and Raymond Campbell was injured about the head, his face having been cut quite badly.
